Big Cookie, Chocolate Cat

by MiaQc

Summary

Crossover between Cookie Clicker and Idle Kitties Online. In Cookie Clicker, the Big Cookie is worried but the arrival of the Chocolate Cat changes everything.

- A translation of Gros Biscuit, Chat Chocolat by MiaQc

In Cookie Clicker, the Big Cookie is worried. The Cursor hasn't clicked on it for ages. Has the Player abandoned it to its fate? There are auto-cursors that click, but it's not the same thing.

Suddenly, a cat arrives, but he's made of chocolate and his right ear has been eaten.

"Hi!" He said to the cookie. "I'm the Chocolate Cat. You look worried."

"The Cursor won't click on me!

"Oh..." Replies the cat. "Can I help you?"

"Well, yes. Put a paw on me."

"Like this?" Asks the Chocolate Cat while placing a front paw on the Big Cookie.

"Yes! Do it again."

The cat puts his other paw on the Big Cookie. The cookie asks him to continue, so the cat uses his two front paws to click on the cookie. The Big Cookie is happy, but it knows that the Chocolate Cat won't be able to click on it forever. As for the cat, he finds it amusing to click on the cookie with his paws and then by wagging his tail.
